Trustee Lockart said the senior center is currently closed due to a few COVID cases and a stomach bug that is going around. They hope to resume the lunch program Monday, March 21, 2022.

Trustee Rubino said that he is glad the weather is getting warmer.

Deputy Mayor Sim mentioned that last week we had a bout of the stomach bug with some of our employees. He mentioned that on Wednesday, March 2, we celebrated our first centennial event, with the employee centennial luncheon. He also expressed thanks for all the employees and all they do.

Mayor Tobin mentioned that there was a repair done to the drainage in the parking lot after a break, and we will be paving that once the weather gets warmer. Superintendent Decker added that they switched the line to plastic to prevent it from rotting in the future.

Chief Kayser read aloud the fire report for the month of February. Deputy Mayor Sim asked the Chief to check the status of the service award point list. Chief Kayser said he thought they dropped it off Friday, to which Clerk Blot said she would check with her staff, and the Chief said he would check with Ray Paradise.
