Deputy Mayor Sim stated that this Saturday, October 8th, is the Village's Centennial Dinner, and it is being held at the Italian American Center. It is the last of the Centennial celebrations. Mayor Tobin further noted that there are approximately 120 guests, and it will feature a band performance. The board agreed that everyone is looking forward to this event. Trustee Lockart mentioned that all of the Centennial events have been great opportunities to see and meet many different populations in our Village. The Village has had the open house, Centennial picnic, Centennial 5K, Centennial parade, and the dinner will complete the series. Pictures from each of the events have been featured in the Fall Villager, which has just been completed. Trustee Lockart added that it has also been nice to see different divisions of local government featured in each of our Centennial events.

The following reports were submitted:
